

LMAC PROFILE

BARRY JEFFREY

SENIOR PARTNER

NATIONALITY: British

As a partner at LMAC Consulting, Barry heads up the UK office, supporting clients in the UK, Europe and China.

Previously a Toyota Senior Manager for many years, Barry has now been consulting in business transformation for close to 20 years across the world.

During that time, Barry has gathered a wealth of knowledge in strategic business improvement and knows what it takes to drive operational change at all levels of an organisation.

His hands on approach means that not only does he support clients at a strategic level, but also enjoys working at the ground level, spreading enthusiasm whilst coaching and mentoring where it's required.

Barry is driven by seeing organisations and individuals succeed. This together with his simple no nonsense approach, means that he can develop strong working relationships quickly at all levels of an organisation.
